

Environmental Policy

Arjobex America recognizes its responsibilities to the environmental protection and the prevention of pollution.

Arjobex America will look to continually improve the E.M.S. and its environmental performance:

To develop and adopt technologies and procedures that will reduce environmental impact,

To be considerate of our impact on our neighbors,

To integrate environmental management into decision making policies,

To comply with relevant environmental legislation, ISO 14001:2015 and other requirements pertaining to the manufacture of Polyart® plastic paper.

This policy will be communicated to all employees and subcontractors through induction, awareness training, and notice boards.

This policy is made available to interested parties including the public.
